Students of NIT Raipur top the Amdocs Code Mania 2013

3 Students make it to Top 20

Raipur,October 30, 2013: In the CodeMania 2013 – a national level coding competition conducted by Amdocs, both the 1st and 2nd positions were grabbed by the students of NIT Raipur.

12000 students from various IITs, NITs,IIITs and other reputed colleges had participated in this contest. Only 26 were able to make it to the final round. And in those 26, the 1st, 2nd and 20th positions are won by students of NIT Raipur. Specifically the 1st and 2nd positions are held by students in 4th year at the Computer Science Department.

"It was a wonderful experience. The competition was intense and exhilarating", says Achal Agrawal, the topper of this challenge. He was the winner of this competition last year as well.

The results have been uploaded at www.amdocscodemania.com
